Identifiable by their facial tattoos. They often choose to take human form in order to corrupt mortals. Out of all the daemon clans, Baazrati are most likely to be found living amongst humans. They maintain an almost emotionless outward appearance and are slow to anger. Quite fearsome in battle, most Baazrati prefer swords
over other weapons, considering swordsmanship to be an artform rather than a combat technique.
